TOP NOTES

Michael Mersch scored twice in the first period. It was Mersch's second multi-goal of the season and the first time he scored twice in the same period since March 24, 2017 as a member of the Ontario Reign.

The Amerks captain has now recorded 16 points (9+7) and five multi-point outings over his last 14 games to move into the second on the team in scoring.

With three points (1+2) on the night, Jack Quinn became the first Amerk this season to reach both the 10-goal mark and 20-point mark and take over the AHL's scoring lead with 21 points (10+11) on the season.

With assists on Rochester's third goal of the game, Quinn and Oskari Laaksonen each extended their point streaks to four games.

Laaksonen has six assists through his first nine games in the month of November. After tonight, he's tied for sixth and eighth amongst all AHL defensemen in assists (10) and points (11), respectively. Additionally, nine of his 10 assists this season have come on the power-play, good for second-most amongst all blueliners in that category.

The Amerks went for 4-for-9 on the power-play, a new season-high.

The Amerks have now won three of their last four games on home ice and have outscored their opponents 18-10 over that span.

Tonight was the 461st all-time meeting between the AHL's senior-most franchises. Rochester is now 192-216-53 lifetime against the Bears.
