TOP NOTES

Goaltender Mat Robson made his Amerks debut tonight, stopping 32 of the 35 shots he faced to pick up his first win. It was Robson's first AHL start since March 11, 2020 as a member of the Iowa Wild and first AHL win since March 8, 2020 (31 saves at Manitoba).

Peyton Krebs capped a three-point night by scoring the game-winner with 43 seconds remaining in overtime. He also set-up the game-tying goal, giving the rookie forward seven points (1+6) over his last three games. He's now tied for seventh in scoring among all AHL rookies with 15 points (2+13) in 13 games this season.

Mattias Samuelsson scored his first goal of the season and later added an assist for his second multi-point effort in eight games. The second-year defenseman now has eight points (1+7) in his last 11 games and seven points (1+6) in his last nine.

Michael Mersch scored his 11th goal of the season 23 seconds into the third period, tying him with Jack Quinn for most on the team. After tonight, the Amerks captain has four goals in his last three games and is on pace to reach the 15-goal mark for the sixth time in his AHL career.

Sean Malone recorded his third multi-point outing in four games. He has five goals over that span and is currently averaging a point per game.

Oskari Laaksonen extended his point streak to a career-best six straight games with an assist on Malone's third-period power-play goal. He now leads the league with a team-high 11 power-play assists as all but one of his 12 assists this season have come on the man-advantage.
