TOP NOTES

Jack Quinn returned to the lineup tonight after missing the previous nine games due to illness. He finished with three shots while playing on a line with Brandon Biro and JJ Peterka.

Ryan MacInnis scored his sixth goal of the season late in the second period. He now has six points (2+4) in his last five games, including goals in two of his last four.

With an assist on MacInnis' goal, Linus Weissbach has two points (1+1) in his first four games back in the lineup since returning from injury.

Michael Houser made his fifth straight start tonight for the Amerks dating back to Dec. 19, finishing with 14 saves. It was his fourth game this season allowing two or fewer goals-against.

Jimmy Schuld returned to the lineup after missing the last three games in COVID-19 protocols.

JJ Peterka, who was named the AHL Player of the Week on Monday, had a team-high four shots on goal despite seeing his three-game point streak halted.

Tonight's loss snapped Rochester's five-game home win streak, the team's longest since the 2015-16 season.
