TOP NOTES

Ryan MacInnis scored both Amerks goals, including the game-winner with seven seconds remaining in regulation.

It marked his sixth goal in six games this month and his second multi-goal game since Jan. 7.

With his two-goal game, MacInnis surpassed the 10-goal mark for the first time in his six AHL seasons and became just the third Amerk to reach the mark this season, joining Michael Mersch and Jack Quinn.

MacInnis also eclipsed the 20-point mark for the third straight season.

Brandon Biro pushed his point streak to three games with an assist on MacInnis' goal. After tonight, he now has 19 points (5+14) over his last 18 games to move into 10th in scoring among all AHL rookies.

Michael Mersch extended his current point streak to seven straight games with the primary assist on the game-winning goal, matching his career-long he set in 2015. The Amerks captain is now two points away from reaching the 40-point mark for the fifth time in eight years.

Mat Robson made 25 saves to pick up his second straight win and improve to 5-2-1 win on the season. He's allowed two goals-against over his last two starts combined and hasn't lost in regulation through five starts in January.

Tonight's win snapped a three-game skid to the Crunch and was the first this season that Rochester did not score four or more goals.
