TOP NOTES

Brandon Biro scored his sixth goal of the season early in the first period to extend his current point streak to four games. After tonight, he now has 20 points (6+14) over his last 19 games to move into ninth in scoring amongst all AHL rookies.

With his recent production, Biro has moved into fourth on the team in scoring. Including Biro, three of Rochester's top four point-getters are rookies.

Ethan Prow has points in three straight games after picking up two assists. With seven points (1+6) over his last six games, he's now tied for ninth in scoring amongst all AHL defencemen.

Michael Mersch moved into a tie for third in the AHL in goal-scoring after netting his team-leading 19th goal of the season. The Amerks captain is now within one goal of capturing his fifth 20-goal season in his eight-year pro career.

Additionally, his second-period tally pushed his point streak to a career-best eight straight games, surpassing his previous mark of seven he set during the 2014-15 season.

With an assist tonight, JJ Peterka is now one off the league lead for most by a rookie. His team-high 23 assists trail only Tucson's Matias Maccelli among rookies and are tied for seventh overall among league leaders.

Mat Robson made his second straight start and third in the last four games. It marked his sixth straight game with 20 or more saves.
