GAME NOTES

TONIGHT'S GAME OVERVIEW

The Rochester Americans (22-14-2-1) embark on a season-long five-game road swing beginning tonight when they visit the Providence Bruins (18-12-3-3) for a 7:05 p.m. face-off at Dunkin' Donuts Center. It's the second and final meeting between the two teams this season and will be carried live on The Sports Leader 95.7 FM/950 AM The Fan Rochester as well as AHLTV.

The Amerks have earned points in 18 of their last 28 games dating back to Nov. 19, which includes a 5-3 win over the Bruins on Dec. 29. Providence, meanwhile, enters tonight with a 5-3-0-2 record in its previous 10 contests.

HEAD-TO-HEAD SERIES SNAPSHOT

Tonight is just the 14th meeting between the Amerks and the Bruins over the last 12 seasons. Rochester has gone 3-8-2-0 during that span, including a win in the previous get-together earlier this season.

The Amerks are 0-2-1-0 in their last three visits to Providence.

Dating back to the 2007-08, there have been nine one-goal games over the previous 15 contests between Providence and Rochester, including four of the last five.

Providence has won four of its last five at home, outscoring the opposition 24-6 over that span, including three straight games allowing only one goal.

AMERKS TRIFECTA LEADING THE WAY

The Amerks own three of the league's top point-getters in veteran forward Michael Mersch and rookie sensations JJ Peterka and Jack Quinn. Mersch and Quinn, who is currently on recall with the Buffalo Sabres, rank among the AHL's top five goal-scorers. Mersch, Peterka and Quinn are eighth, 13th and 14th in overall scoring with 39, 36 and 35 points, respectively.

Mersch saw his career-best nine-game point streak halted in last Friday's loss to Charlotte. He has points in 10 of his last 14 games as he inches closer to the 40-point mark for the fifth time in his career.

After scoring just four times through the first three months of the season, Peterka has notched 16 points (7+9) in 12 games to begin 2022, including goals in back-to-back games on three different occasions over that span.

Quinn paces all AHL rookies in goals (18) and ranks fourth in points (35) while his team-high six power-play goals are also second-most among all first-year players.

Rochester enters the weekend with the AHL's third-best offense. Averaging just under four goals per game, the Amerks have scored the second-most goals in the AHL with 148.

POWER-PLAY PROFICIENCY

At the halfway point of the season, Rochester's power-play has gone 36-for-141 with a 25.5% conversion rate that is currently second-best in the AHL. The Amerks' 36 goals on the man-advantage are most among all North Division teams and are six shy of the AHL lead behind the Ontario Reign.

The Amerks have scored at least one power-play goal in 23 of their first 41 games this season and have registered multiple power-play tallies in eight overall, including a season-high four goals in the 7-3 win over Hershey back on Nov. 26.

GAME NOTES

QUINN-TESSANTAL QUALITIES

Quinn became the first AHL player this season and just the 17th player in Amerks franchise history to score four goals in a game in the 6-5 overtime loss to Belleville on Jan. 15. More impressively, he scored all four goals consecutively, including the game-tying tally with 3.3 seconds remaining in regulation.

He's the first Amerk to have a four-goal game since Rochester native Derek Whitmore single-handedly outscored Hamilton on Nov. 25, 2011 (5-2 W).

With 18 goals through his first 24 games, he's on pace to become the first Amerk to score 20 goals in the fewest number of games since Luke Adam reached the mark in 31 games during the 2013-14 campaign.

He was named the AHL's Rookie of the Month for October after leading all first-year players with 10 points (5+5) through the first month of the regular season. In just six games to begin the season, Quinn surpassed his offensive output from his truncated 2020-21 campaign, and became the first AHL player to reach the 10-point mark this season.

Quinn has been held scoreless just four times all season and hasn't gone more than one game without recording a point. He has recorded 11 multi-point performances this year. More impressively, the Amerks are a near-perfect 10-0-1-0 this season when Quinn registers a multi-point game, including 6-0-1-0 on home ice.

On Nov. 12, Quinn became the first AHL rookie since Frank Vatrano in 2015-16 to score eight goals through his first 10 games of the season.

Despite again being out of the lineup for an extended period of time for the second time this season, Quinn is one of only two AHL rookies with at least six power-play goals this season, joining San Jose's Scott Reedy.

MERSCH LEADING BY EXAMPLE

Mersch will become the first Amerk and just the eighth player in the AHL this season to reach the 40-point mark on his very next point. In doing so, he will have reached the mark for the fifth time in his eight-year pro career.

Mersch has totaled 26 points (12+14) and four multi-point efforts over his last 27 games dating back to Nov. 24. He's been held scoreless just eight times over that span to move into eighth in the AHL in scoring with 39 points (19+20) on the season. The Amerks captain began that stretch with a five-game goal-scoring streak, the longest of his career and the longest in the AHL this season, while his recent nine-game point streak surpassed his his previous career-best mark of seven he set during the 2014-15 season.

Mersch is also set to become just the fourth AHL player to join the 20-goal club on his next goal. It will mark the fifth time in eight years that he reached the mark and the first time since the 2018-19 season as a member of the Texas Stars.

When he reaches the 20-goal mark, he will have done so in the second-fewest number of games since 2015-16 when he scored 20 in 35 games with the Ontario Reign. He finished that season with 24 goals in only 52 appearances while also appearing in 17 games with the Los Angeles Kings.

Mersch has appeared in all but one of Rochester's 70 games dating back to last season, including the lone player to appear in all 41 contests in 2021-22.

DELL-IVERING IN THE CREASE

Goaltender Aaron Dell began his Amerks career with an impressive six straight wins through his first six starts with Rochester. Until now, the veteran netminder had never began a season with a win in each of his first six starts at either the NHL or AHL level.

With a win this past Wednesday, Dell matched his career-best 7-1-0 mark when he posted one from March 20 to April 10 during the 2014-15 season with Worcester. In seven of his eight appearances this season, he has made 25 or more saves while also averaging 30 shots-against.

WINNING BY NUMBERS

Rochester enters tonight as the only team in the AHL to have scored at least 47 goals in all three periods this season. Additionally, the Amerks have scored the second-most first and third-period goals among any other team and have outscored the opposition 49-38 through the opening 20 minutes.

The Amerks have scored four or more goals in all but two of their 23 wins this season, both of which have come on home ice. Each of Rochester's 10 road victories have come with four or more goals despite being outscored 79-66 through their first 19 road games.

GAME NOTES

THE BEST OFFENSE IS A GOOD DEFENSE

Rochester has two of the league's top point-producing defensemen in Ethan Prow (5+20) and Oskari Laaksonen (3+21), who enter the weekend tied for fifth and seventh in scoring amongst all blueliners in 37 games.

In addition to being tied for fifth in scoring, Prow's 20 assists are currently seventh-most among all defensemen. With seven points in his last seven games, including the game-winning goal Wednesday against Wilkes-Barre/Scranton, he remains on pace to capture his third straight 30-point season in the AHL. The veteran defenseman has totaled 106 points (32+74) over his last 153 AHL contests dating back to the 2018-19 campaign.

Laaksonen, who boasts nine points (1+8) in his last 14 games since the turn of the New Year, also paces all defensemen with 17 power-play assists as all but four of his 21 assists this season have come on the man-advantage. Equally as impressive, 19 of his 24 points have come on the power-play.

His best performance of the season came back on Jan. 12 when he recorded a career-high four assists in the 7-6 win over Utica, including three in the first period and three of which came on the power-play. He finished two assists shy of tying the franchise record for most in a single game.

Prior to earning his second recall of the season to the Buffalo Sabres, rookie defenseman Mattias Samuelsson recorded two assists in the overtime loss to Belleville on Jan. 15, giving him 15 points (2+13) in 22 games. Samuelsson is tied for eighth in scoring among AHL rookie defensemen while his 13 assists are also eighth-most. With his Sabres season debut at Ottawa on Jan. 18, he became the 13th different player to appear in a game for both Buffalo and Rochester.

FANTASTIC FOUR

The Amerks currently own four of the AHL's top scoring rookies in Jack Quinn, JJ Peterka, Linus Weissbach and Brandon Biro, all of whom have combined for 122 points (45+77) through the first 41 games this season.

Despite being sidelined again for the second time this season, Quinn, Buffalo's eighth overall pick in 2020, continues to pace all first-year players in goals (18) while ranking fourth in points (35) in 24 games. Quinn became the 101st AHL player this season to make his NHL debut when he took the ice against the Tampa Bay Lightning on Jan. 11. He finished with team-highs in shots (3) and shot attempts (6) while earning 16:30 of total ice time. He then returned to the Sabres a day after scoring his 18th goal of the season for Rochester and was rewarded with his first two NHL points, including a goal against Vezina Trophy winner and Stanley Cup champion Braden Holtby in the Sabres' 5-4 loss to the Dallas Stars on Jan. 20.

Peterka is tied for second in rookie scoring with 36 points (11+25) after recording two points (1+1) against Wilkes-Barre/Scranton on Wednesday. He also ranks third among all first-year players with a team-high 25 assists. He and Quinn, taken just 26 picks apart from one another by Buffalo in the 2020 NHL Draft, currently make up the only three rookie duos across the entire AHL to rank inside the top three on their respective team in scoring.

Biro has been one of the team's most consistent point-getters as of late with 26 points (7+19) over his last 23 games dating back to Nov. 27. He has eight multi-point efforts in 19 games over that span. He comes into the weekend sixth in scoring among all first-year skaters with 31 points (7+24) in 34 games, which included a career-long six-game point streak (2+6).

SERIES NOTABLES

Of the 14 different defensemen the Amerks have used this season, 13 have notched at least one point while nine have recorded at least one goal. Additionally, of the 20 different forwards to appear in one game for Rochester, 18 have scored a goal and 19 have produced a point.

Over his last 16 games since the turn of the New Year, Amerks forward Arttu Ruotsalainen has tallied 16 points on six goals and 10 assists, a stretch which began with a three-point effort versus Hartford on Jan. 2. Ruotsalainen has also turned in a multi-point effort in five games over that same span and had a career-best eight shots against Utica on Jan. 12. The Finnish forward has recorded at least one shot in 34 of 35 games with Rochester dating back to the start of the 2020-21 campaign.

Providence forward Steven Fogarty served as Rochester's team captain in the 2020-21 shortened season. The Chambersburg, Penn., native split the campaign between the Amerks and Sabres, tallying eight goals and five assists for 13 points in a combined 25 games.

He currently leads the Bruins in assists (16) and points (24) and ranks fourth on the team in goals (8).

Both Rochester (15-6-1-0) and Providence (11-5-3-3) enter tonight with winning records this season when scoring the game's first goal. Both teams have two overtime wins as well as a pair of shootout victories this season.

Rochester has not faced Providence at the Dunkin' Donuts Center since Oct. 12, 2019. The Amerks opened the scoring 2:05 into the contest before the Bruins scored three times, including the game-winner at the 19:03 mark to earn a 3-2 win. Both teams were unable to capitalize on a penalty shot.

Amerks forward Patrick Polino appeared in one game with Providence earlier this season.
