TOP NOTES

Tonight's game saw the return of forwards Michael Mersch and Jack Quinn from injury. Mersch missed the last 11 games while Quinn was sidelined the previous four after suffering a minor setback at Belleville on March 5.

The duo scored 18 seconds apart from one another with both scoring their 20th goals of the season.

Quinn, playing in just his 27th game of the season, became the first Amerk to score 20 goals in the fewest number of games since Luke Adam reached the mark in 31 games during the 2013-14 campaign. Mersch has now reached the 20-goal mark for the fifth time in his eight-year pro career and the first time since the 2018-19 season.

Mark Jankowski, who was reassigned to Rochester on Wednesday, played his first game back with the Amerks since Nov. 27, recording two assists. He now has seven points (2+5) over his last three games dating back to Nov. 26.

JJ Peterka scored twice, including the game-winner, to become the first Amerk this season to reach the 50-point mark.

Lukas Rousek, Buffalo's sixth-round selection (160th overall) in 2019, made his AHL debut after missing the first 57 games of the season recovering from a knee injury.

Nate Knoepke made his professional debut tonight, becoming the 15th different defenseman to play a game this season for Rochester.
