GAME NOTES

TONIGHT'S GAME OVERVIEW

The Rochester Americans (32-25-5-3) continue their five-game road swing as they head north of the border for a pair of matchups against the Laval Rocket (31-23-3-2) beginning tonight at 7:30 p.m. All the action from Place Bell will be carried live on The Sports Leader 95.7FM/950 AM The Fan Rochester as well as AHLTV.

With two wins in their last three games, the Amerks have earned points in eight of their last 10 and are 5-2-2-1 over their last 10 games. The Rocket, meanwhile, are winless in their last two contests entering tonight.

HEAD-TO-HEAD SERIES SNAPSHOT

Tonight's contest is the sixth of eight meetings between the North Division rivals and the first since March 9 when the Amerks suffered a 7-2 defeat in the previous get-together. The loss was Rochester's second straight this season against the Rocket after the Amerks began claimed the first three meetings of the season series.

Rochester enters tonight showing a 16-5-0 all-time record against Laval. Prior to suffering back-to-back losses against the Rocket, the Amerks had won eight straight and 12 of the previous 13 games against the Laval dating back to the start of the 2017-18 campaign.

The Amerks have won four straight and are 9-1-0-0 in their previous 10 visits to Laval dating back to the start of 2017-18 season.

DYNAMIC DUO

Rookie forwards JJ Peterka and Jack Quinn continue to find the scoresheet on almost a nightly basis as the duo rank first and second among all Amerks in points with 58 and 50, respectively.

With six points last weekend in Cleveland, which included five goals, Peterka became the third different Amerk this season and seventh first-year player in the league to reach the 20-goal mark.

Meanwhile, Quinn, who has six points (2+4) in his last four games, became the second Rochester skater and only the fourth AHL rookie to reach the 50-point plateau.

This season marks the first time in nearly 30 years the Amerks have made multiple rookies record more than 50 points in the same season since 1992-93 when the club had five: Todd Simon (93), Scott Thomas (59), Doug MacDonald (58), Jozef Cierny (54) and Mike McLaughlin (54).

Rochester is a perfect 6-0-0-0 this season when both players record multi-point outings in the same contest. The Amerks are 13-1-1-0 when Quinn produces at least two points and show a 12-3-0-0 record when Peterka has more than one point.

POWER-PLAY PROFICIENCY

Rochester's power-play has gone 54-for-233 with a 23.2% conversion rate that is currently fifth-best in the AHL. The Amerks' 54 goals on the man-advantage are most among all North Division teams and are eight shy of the AHL lead behind Ontario.

The Amerks have scored at least one power-play goal in 35 of their first 65 games this season and have registered multiple power-play tallies in 13 overall, including a season-high four goals in the 7-3 win over Hershey back on Nov. 26.

GAME NOTES

PETERKA FLOURISHING IN SECOND HALF

Coming off his three-goal outing against Cleveland on Friday, forward JJ Peterka became the third Amerks this season and just the seventh AHL rookie to reach the 20-goal mark.

After scoring just four times through the first three months of the season, Peterka has notched 38 points (18+20) in 36 games to begin 2022, including goals in back-to-back games on five different occasions over that span.

Peterka, who was taken 34th overall in the 2020 NHL Draft by the Sabres, leads all AHL rookies and is fifth in the AHL with 187 shots on goal. He's only gone two games all season without recording at least one shot on goal.

Peterka made his highly anticipated NHL debut on Dec. 28 as Buffalo hosted New Jersey before visiting the New York Islanders the very next day. Following his return to the Amerks, he totaled five points on two goals and three assists in two games before being honored as the AHL's Rookie of the Month of the Week for the period ending Jan. 2, 2022.

Peterka has been held scoreless just 12 times since Dec. 19 and hasn't gone more than two games without recording a point during that same span. More impressively, the Amerks are 12-3-0-0 this season when Peterka registers a multi-point game, including 6-0-0-0 on home ice.

With a team-high 58 points (22+36) through 59 games, Peterka needs two points to become first Amerks rookie to reach the 60-point mark since Thomas Vanek had 68 points (42+26) in 74 games during the 2004-05 season. Peterka also leads the team and is ninth in the AHL with 36 assists.

Coming into the week, he's one of only five AHL rookies currently leading his respective team in scoring.

APPERT JOINS ELITE COMPANY

By way of a 6-5 overtime victory over the Cleveland Monsters on March 19, Seth Appert became the sixth straight head coach to reach the 30-win mark in his first full season behind the bench.

Should the Amerks win eight of their remaining 11 games this season, Appert will become the first bench boss to lead his team to 40 wins in his first full season at the helm since Hall of Famer Randy Cunneyworth, who in nine seasons went on to become the winningest coach in franchise history.

Appert is 43-40-11 in 94 career games leading the Amerks dating back to the start of the 2020-21 season.

RACE TO 20

After the cancellation of the remainder of the 2019-20 season and a truncated 2020-21 campaign failed to produce a 20-goal scorer for just the fourth time in franchise history, the Amerks could potentially have several by season's end with eight players currently with 10 or more goals.

Michael Mersch and Quinn, who both returned to the lineup on March 18 against Cleveland, both reached the mark in their first game back, despite Quinn appearing in 20 fewer games than Mersch. Peterka joined the group on Friday night while Arttu Ruotsalainen (17), Brett Murray (15) and Sean Malone (14) are closing in on the milestone as well.

GAME NOTES

THE BEST OFFENSE IS A GOOD DEFENSE

Rochester has two of the league's top point-producing defensemen in Ethan Prow (9+31) and Oskari Laaksonen (5+26), who enter the week fifth and tied for 18th in scoring amongst all blueliners, respectively.

Prow, who reached the 40-point mark for the second time in his AHL career, is also tied for fourth with 31 assists, which are six more than Laaksonen. His nine goals are tied for eighth-most by a defenseman this season and only three off the league lead. With an assist this past Wednesday against Utica, Prow has recorded 22 points (5+17) over his last 29 games. Additionally, he has totaled 121 points (36+85) over his last 175 AHL contests dating back to the 2018-19 campaign.

Laaksonen, who shows five points (1+4) over his last nine games coming into tonight, also ranks fourth among defensemen with 20 power-play assists, as all but six of his 26 assists this season have come on the man-advantage. Equally as impressive, 24 of his 31 points have come on the power-play.

His best performance of the season came back on Jan. 12 when he recorded a career-high four assists in the 7-6 win over Utica, including three in the first period and three of which came on the power-play. He finished two assists shy of tying the franchise record for most in a single game.

FANTASTIC FOUR

The Amerks currently own four of the AHL's top scoring rookies in JJ Peterka, Jack Quinn, Brandon Biro and Linus Weissbach, all of whom have combined for 178 points (67+111) through Rochester's first 65 games this season.

Peterka's torrid start to the second half of the year has him leading all rookies in points (58) and third in both goals (22) and assists (36) in 59 games this season.

Quinn, the Buffalo Sabres' eighth overall pick in 2020, is second among all first-year players with a team-high 23 goals and ranks fourth in points (50) despite only appearing in 34 games.

Quinn became the 101st AHL player this season to make his NHL debut when he took the ice against the Tampa Bay Lightning on Jan. 11. He finished with team-highs in shots (3) and shot attempts (6) while earning 16:30 of total ice time. He then returned to the Sabres a day after scoring his 18th goal of the season for Rochester and was rewarded with his first two NHL points, including a goal against Vezina Trophy winner and Stanley Cup champion Braden Holtby in the Sabres' 5-4 loss to the Dallas Stars on Jan 20.

Despite missing the last 16 games due to injury, Biro is still tied for 14th in scoring amongst all rookies with 36 points (9+27) in 40 games.

Weissbach has notched 14 points (4+10) in his last 22 games. He finished February with 11 points (1+10) in 13 contests, including a season-high three-assist effort on Feb. 27 at Toronto to bring the month to a close.

Peterka and Quinn are the first pair of Amerks rookies taken from the same Draft class (2020) to record 50 or more points in the same season since Scott Thomas and Doug MacDonald (1989) did so in 1992-93.

WORKING OVERTIME

Rochester's 6-5 overtime loss to Bridgeport on March 27th was the 16th game this season - and ninth since Feb. 11 - that went beyond regulation for the Amerks.

The Amerks are 6-5 in overtime but show just a 2-3 mark in shootouts.

Only nine more teams have played more overtime games than the Amerks.

Rochester tied an AHL record with 29 overtime games in 2017-18.

OTHER AMERKS NOTABLES

Of the 16 different defensemen the Amerks have used this season, 15 have notched at least one point while 11 have recorded at least one goal. Additionally, of the 26 different forwards to appear in one game for Rochester, 19 have scored a goal and 22 have produced a point.

Over his last 40 games since the turn of the New Year, Amerks forward Arttu Ruotsalainen has tallied 42 points on 17 goals and 25 assists, a stretch which began with a three-point effort versus Hartford on Jan. 2. Ruotsalainen has also turned in a multi-point effort in 11 games over that same span, an impressive run highlighted by three consecutive two-goal games for the first time in his AHL career. He's recorded at least one point in 14 of his last 16 outings since Feb. 27.

Last Wednesday, Ethan Prow became the fifth different Amerk to reach the 40-point mark, joining Peterka, Quinn, Mersch and Ruotsalainen.

Rochester is the only team in the Eastern Conference this season with five players who have 40 or more points. Additionally, the Amerks are the only team to have three different rookies with at least 10 goals, 20 assists and 30 points in Peterka, Quinn and Weissbach.
