GAME NOTES

TONIGHT'S GAME OVERVIEW

The Rochester Americans (32-26-6-3) close out their five-game road-swing tonight as they make their final trip of the season to CAA Arena to face the Belleville Senators (33-25-4-0) at 7 p.m. All the action will be carried live on The Sports Leader 95.7FM/950 AM The Fan Rochester as well as AHLTV.

With two wins in their last five games, the Amerks have earned points in nine of their last 12 games and are 4-3-2-1 over their last 10. The Senators, meanwhile, enter tonight winners of two straight and boast a 5-3-2-0 record in their previous 10 games overall.

HEAD-TO-HEAD SERIES SNAPSHOT

Rochester is 11-12-1 all-time against Belleville despite being outscored 89-82 through the first 24 meetings with the Senators. Three of the last four meetings between the two clubs have been decided beyond regulation.

The Amerks boast a 7-2-3-0 record in their 12 matchups against the Senators north of the border.

Rochester has scored two or more goals in 21 of the previous 24 get-togethers, which includes 14 games where they have produced four or more tallies.

The two teams are separated by only a .20 points percentage in the AHL's North Division standings coming into tonight.

DYNAMIC DUO

Rookie forwards JJ Peterka and Jack Quinn continue to find the scoresheet on almost a nightly basis as the duo rank first and second among all Amerks in points with 58 and 51, respectively.

With six points last weekend in Cleveland, which included five goals, Peterka became the third different Amerk this season and seventh first-year player in the league to reach the 20-goal mark.

Meanwhile, Quinn, who has seven points (2+5) in his last six games, became the second Rochester skater and only the fourth AHL rookie to reach the 50-point plateau.

This season marks the first time in nearly 30 years the Amerks have had multiple rookies record more than 50 points in the same season since 1992-93 when the club had five: Todd Simon (93), Scott Thomas (59), Doug MacDonald (58), Jozef Cierny (54) and Mike McLaughlin (54).

Rochester is a perfect 6-0-0-0 this season when both players record multi-point outings in the same contest. The Amerks are 13-1-1-0 when Quinn produces at least two points and show a 12-3-0-0 record when Peterka has more than one point.

POWER-PLAY PROFICIENCY

Rochester's power-play has gone 54-for-238 with a 22.7% conversion rate that is currently fifth-best in the AHL. The Amerks' 54 goals on the man-advantage are most among all North Division teams and are eight shy of the AHL lead behind Ontario.

The Amerks have scored at least one power-play goal in 35 of their first 67 games this season and have registered multiple power-play tallies in 13 overall, including a season-high four goals in the 7-3 win over Hershey back on Nov. 26.

GAME NOTES

PETERKA FLOURISHING IN SECOND HALF

Coming off his three-goal outing against Cleveland this past Friday, forward JJ Peterka became the third Amerk this season and just the seventh AHL rookie to reach the 20-goal mark.

After scoring just four times through the first three months of the season, Peterka has notched 38 points (18+20) in 38 games to begin 2022, including goals in back-to-back games on five different occasions over that span.

Peterka, who was taken 34th overall in the 2020 NHL Draft by the Sabres, leads all AHL rookies and is fifth in the AHL with 194 shots on goal. He's only gone two games all season without recording at least one shot on goal.

Peterka made his highly anticipated NHL debut on Dec. 28 as Buffalo hosted New Jersey before visiting the New York Islanders the very next day. Following his return to the Amerks, he totaled five points on two goals and three assists in two games before being honored as the AHL's Rookie of the Month of the Week for the period ending Jan. 2, 2022.

Peterka has been held scoreless just 14 times since Dec. 19 and hasn't gone more than two games without recording a point during that same span. More impressively, the Amerks are 12-3-0-0 this season when Peterka registers a multi-point game, including 6-0-0-0 on home ice.

With a team-high 58 points (22+36) through 61 games, Peterka needs two points to become first Amerks rookie to reach the 60-point mark since Thomas Vanek had 68 points (42+26) in 74 games during the 2004-05 season. Peterka also leads the team and is ninth in the AHL with 36 assists.

Coming into the weekend, he's one of only five AHL rookies currently leading his respective team in scoring.

APPERT JOINS ELITE COMPANY

By way of a 6-5 overtime victory over the Cleveland Monsters on March 19, Seth Appert became the sixth straight head coach to reach the 30-win mark in his first full season behind the bench.

Should the Amerks win eight of their remaining nine games this season, Appert will become the first bench boss to lead his team to 40 wins in his first full season at the helm since Hall of Famer Randy Cunneynworth, who in nine seasons went on to become the winningest coach in franchise history.

Appert is 43-41-12 in 96 career games leading the Amerks dating back to the start of the 2020-21 season.

RACE TO 20

After the cancellation of the remainder of the 2019-20 season and a truncated 2020-21 campaign failed to produce a 20-goal scorer for just the fourth time in franchise history, the Amerks could potentially have several by season's end with eight players currently with 10 or more goals.

Michael Mersch and Quinn, who both returned to the lineup on March 18 against Cleveland, both reached the mark in their first game back, despite Quinn appearing in 20 fewer games than Mersch. Peterka joined the group last Friday night against Cleveland while Arttu Ruotsalainen (18), Sean Malone (16), Brett Murray (15) are closing in on the milestone as well.

GAME NOTES

THE BEST OFFENSE IS A GOOD DEFENSE

Rochester has two of the league's top point-producing defensemen in Ethan Prow (9+32) and Oskari Laaksonen (5+26), who enter the weekend fifth and tied for 21st in scoring amongst all blueliners, respectively.

Prow, who reached the 40-point mark for the second time in his AHL career, is also fourth with 32 assists, which are six more than Laaksonen. His nine goals are tied for ninth-most by a defenseman this season and only three off the league lead. With an assist on Wednesday against Laval, Prow has recorded 23 points (5+18) over his last 31 games. Additionally, he has totaled 122 points (36+86) over his last 176 AHL contests dating back to the 2018-19 campaign.

Laaksonen, who shows five points (1+4) over his last 11 games coming into tonight, also ranks fourth among defensemen with 20 power-play assists, as all but six of his 26 assists this season have come on the man-advantage. Equally as impressive, 24 of his 31 points have come on the power-play.

His best performance of the season came back on Jan. 12 when he recorded a career-high four assists in the 7-6 win over Utica, including three in the first period and three of which came on the power-play. He finished two assists shy of tying the franchise record for most in a single game.

FANTASTIC FOUR

The Amerks currently own four of the AHL's top scoring rookies in JJ Peterka, Jack Quinn, Brandon Biro and Linus Weissbach, all of whom have combined for 180 points (68+112) through Rochester's first 67 games this season.

Peterka's torrid start to the second half of the year has him leading all rookies in points (58), third in assists (36) and fourth in goals (22) in 61 games this season.

Quinn, the Buffalo Sabres' eighth overall pick in 2020, is second among all first-year players with 23 goals and ranks fourth in points (51) despite only appearing in 35 games.

Quinn became the 101st AHL player this season to make his NHL debut when he took the ice against the Tampa Bay Lightning on Jan. 11. He finished with team-highs in shots (3) and shot attempts (6) while earning 16:30 of total ice time. He then returned to the Sabres a day after scoring his 18th goal of the season for Rochester and was rewarded with his first two NHL points, including a goal against Vezina Trophy winner and Stanley Cup champion Braden Holtby in the Sabres' 5-4 loss to the Dallas Stars on Jan 20.

Despite missing the last 18 games due to injury, Biro is still ranks 16th in scoring amongst all rookies with 36 points (9+27) in 40 games.

Weissbach has notched 15 points (5+10) in his last 24 games. He finished February with 11 points (1+10) in 13 contests, including a season-high three-assist effort on Feb. 27 at Toronto to bring the month to a close.

Peterka and Quinn are the first pair of Amerks rookies taken from the same Draft class (2020) to record 50 or more points in the same season since Scott Thomas and Doug MacDonald (1989) did so in 1992-93.

WORKING OVERTIME

Rochester's 4-3 overtime loss to Laval last night was the 17th game this season - and 10th since Feb. 11 - that went beyond regulation for the Amerks.

The Amerks are 6-6 in overtime but show just a 2-3 mark in shootouts.

Only four more teams have played more overtime games than the Amerks.

Rochester tied an AHL record with 29 overtime games in 2017-18.

OTHER AMERKS NOTABLES

Of the 16 different defensemen the Amerks have used this season, 15 have notched at least one point while 11 have recorded at least one goal. Additionally, of the 26 different forwards to appear in one game for Rochester, 19 have scored a goal and 22 have produced a point.

Over his last 42 games since the turn of the New Year, Amerks forward Arttu Ruotsalainen has tallied 44 points on 18 goals and 26 assists, a stretch which began with a three-point effort versus Hartford on Jan. 2. Ruotsalainen has also turned in a multi-point effort in 12 games over that same span, an impressive run highlighted by three consecutive two-goal games for the first time in his AHL career. He's recorded at least one point in 15 of his last 18 outings since Feb. 27.

He was named the AHL's Player of the Month for March has scored 10 goals and added 12 assists for 22 points in 17 games since the start of March.

Rochester is the only team in the Eastern Conference this season with five players who have 40 or more points. Additionally, the Amerks are the only team to have three different rookies with at least 10 goals, 20 assists and 30 points in Peterka, Quinn and Weissbach.
