TOP NOTES

Sean Malone extended his point streak to a career-long 11 straight games with a power-play goal, the longest by any Amerk this season. He's amassed nine goals and five assists for 14 points over that span. With 17 goals on the season, he remains on pace to reach the 20-goal mark for the first time in his pro career.

Brandon Biro made his return to the lineup tonight after missing the previous 19 games due to injury. He recorded an assist on Rochester's second goal of the game, giving him 32 points (9+23) over his last 30 games dating back to Nov. 27.

Arttu Ruotsalainen recorded his second multi-point effort in three games with two assists, both of which came in the first period. Ruotsalainen, who was named the AHL's Player of the Month for March, has recorded at least one point in five of his first six games in April and is within one point of reaching the 50-point mark for the first time in his pro career.

With his first-period goal, Mark Jankowski has now totaled 11 points (4+7) in his first 12 games back with the Amerks since returning from a four-month stay with the Buffalo Sabres on March 18. Dating back to Nov. 26, the veteran forward has produced 16 points (6+10) in 14 games over that span.

Tonight was the third straight home game in which the Amerks scored twice on the power-play. It's also the fifth straight game at home the Amerks have scored on the man-advantage, going 8-for-19 in that time.
