TOP NOTES

All four Amerks goals came on the strength of special teams, including three power-play goals and a shorthanded tally.

With three power-play goals, two of which came in the first period, it marks the fourth time in the previous 10 regular-season games dating back to April 9 of last season the Amerks scored multiple power-play goals.

Including tonight's three power-play goals, the Amerks have gone 17-for-48 (35.4%) over the last 12 regular-season home games going back to last season. During that same span, Rochester has produced five multi-goal games.

Linus Weissbach scored Rochester's first goal of the 2022-23 season on the power-play and later added an assist on the eventual game-winner from Chase Priskie. He now has goals in back-to-back games dating back to last season.

The Amerks had five rookies make their pro North American debuts tonight, including former first-round selections Isak Rosen and Jiri Kulich, who each recorded their first AHL points.

Rosen finished with two points (1+1) and was one of three Amerks to post multi-point outings, joining Weissbach and Sean Malone.

Oskari Laaksonen skated in his 100th AHL game tonight.

The Amerks improved to 34-26-7 all-time in season-opening games.
