TOP NOTES

Brett Murray scored the game-winner with three seconds remaining in regulation, giving him two goals on the year.

After tonight's win, the Amerks are 3-0-0-0 on home ice to begin the season for the first time since winning their first three home contests to start the 2006-07 season.

Linus Weissbach scored twice and notched an assist on the game-winner for his first career three-point game. He now leads the Amerks with three goals and five points in four games. It also marked his first multi-goal game since Oct. 23 of last season.

The Amerks opened the scoring for the third time in four games to begin the season on Tyson Kozak's first professional goal in the first period.

With the lone assist on Kozak's goal, Jiri Kulich now has three assists through his first four games of the season, tying him for second-most amongst all AHL rookies.

Ukko-Pekka Luukkonen made his fourth straight start to begin the season, improving to 3-1-0. He leads all AHL netminders in wins (3), saves (96) and minutes played (241).

The Amerks have scored at least one power-play goal in each of their three home matchups, going 6-for-16 over that span for a 37.5% conversion rate that is third-best in the AHL. The six power-play goals are also the most among any team at home this season.
