TOP NOTES

Brandon Biro and Linus Weissbach each finished with a goal and an assist and are now tied for the team's scoring lead with nine points through the first eight games. Dating back to last season, Biro has totaled 11 points (5+6) over his last 11 games and hasn't gone more than one game without a point over that span.

Jiri Kulich scored for the second straight game and now has points in each of his last three games, totaling four points (2+2) over that span. After tonight, he's tied for seventh among all AHL rookies in scoring with seven points (2+5) in eight games.

Matt Bartkowski scored his first goal as an Amerk in the first period, marking his first AHL goal since April 22 of last season as a member of the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins.

Riley Sheahan, who made his Amerks debut tonight after being reassigned by the Buffalo Sabres earlier in the week, also recorded an assist on Bartkowski's first goal of the season. The assist was his first AHL point since Nov. 24 of last season.

After tonight's win, the Amerks are 4-0-0-0 on home ice to begin the season for the first time since winning their first three home contests to start the 2006-07 season.

The Amerks have scored at least one power-play goal in each of their four home matchups, going 7-for-21 over that span for a 33.3% conversion rate that is fourth-best in the AHL. The seven power-play goals are also tied for the most with Ontario at home this season.
