TOP NOTES

Forwards Michael Mersch and Sean Malone each scored in their return to the lineup tonight after missing a combined 16 games due to injury.

Mersch also assisted on Malone's second-period goal, giving the Amerks captain his first multi-point game since April 9 of last season.

Malone now has two goals and three points over his last four games dating back to Oct. 22. Dating back to the end of last season, Malone has recorded six goals and nine assists for 15 points over his last 18 games, which includes the 2022 Calder Cup Playoffs.

With two assists tonight, Brett Murray has recorded a team-leading four points (1+3) in three games against Utica this season. It's also his first multi-point outing since a two-goal effort in Game 3 of the North Division Finals against Laval on May 25.

With an assist, Ethan Prow has seven points (2+5) over his last eight games dating back to Oct. 29, putting him inside the league's top 20 scoring defensemen.

Malcolm Subban made his season debut tonight after missing Rochester's first 13 games with an injury. Subban, who made his first AHL appearance since Dec. 1 of last season, finished with 22 saves while also becoming the fourth different goaltender to appear in a game this season for Rochester.

Matej Pekar also made his season debut after missing the first 13 games of the season.
