TOP NOTES

Brett Murray opened the scoring with his team-leading 15th goal of the season in the first period. With the goal, Murray matched his previous career-high from last season in eight fewer games.

With a goal and an assist, Jiri Kulich has recorded nine points (3+6) in his last eight games dating back to Jan. 25.

Vinnie Hinostroza scored his third goal in three games and later added an assist for his second multi-point in less than a week. The veteran forward now has five points (3+2) over that span.

Joseph Cecconi has points in consecutive games for the first time all season after recording an assist on Hinostroza's second-period marker.

Ethan Prow recorded his eighth assist in nine games with the primary helper on Sean Malone's second-period power-play goal. His team-leading 23 assists are tied for 10th-most amongst all AHL defensemen. He's also tied for 10th among league blueliners with 11 power-play assists on the season.

In making his first start since Feb. 4, Michael Houser became the fourth different netminder to play against Toronto this season while also appearing in his 100th career AHL game.

It was Houser's second career start against the Marlies and first since Jan. 2, 2015, as a member of the San Antonio Rampage. He also earned an assist on Kulich's goal, his first point since Oct. 25, 2014.
