TOP NOTES

Today's win capped another perfect three-win weekend for the Amerks, who now have points in eight of their last 12, going 5-4-1-2 over that span.

Jiri Kulich scored twice, including once on the power-play, giving him four goals in his last six games and 23 points (14+9) over his last 26 dating back to Jan. 25.

With Kulich and Brett Murray becoming the first players this season to reach the 20-goal mark, the Amerks have now had at least one player from all but two seasons (excluding the COVID-19 shortened 2019-20 and 2020-21 seasons) in the 67-year history of the franchise score 20 or more goals dating back to Bronco Horvath's team-leading 37 tallies during the Amerks' inaugural 1956-57 campaign.

It marks the first time the Amerks had a rookie 20-goal scorer in back-to-back seasons (Jiri Kulich in 2022-23, Jack Quinn and JJ Peterka in 2021-22) since Drew Stafford in 2006-07 and Clarke MacArthur in 2005-06.

Kulich, the youngest regular player in the AHL, is only the fourth player in league history to score more than 20 goals during his 18-year-old season (turning 19 after Jan. 1) and first since Robert Dome of Syracuse recorded 21 in 1997-98. He also becomes just the second Amerks player in franchise history to reach the mark as an 18-year-old since Jozef Cierny scored 27 during his only season in Rochester in 1992-93.

Malcolm Subban earned his 17th win of the season, a new career-high. He finished the weekend with two wins and 48 saves, moving him into 12th in the AHL in wins.
