TOP NOTES

Rookie forward Filip Cederqvist recorded a natural hat trick in a span of 4:47, the first of his pro career, including a pair of goals in nine seconds in the first minute of the second period. He now has eight goals on the season and four in his last four games after going a season-long 16 straight games without a goal.

Five of Cederqvist's eight goals this season have come against Cleveland, which also includes a two-goal effort back on March 11, and both of his three-point outings in 2022-23 have come opposite the Monsters.

Cederqvist becomes the fourth different Amerk to score a hat trick this season, joining Sean Malone, Brandon Biro and Mason Jobst, with three of the four coming on home ice.

With two goals in nine seconds to begin the second period, it marks the fastest two goals by one player in the American Hockey League this season, beating out Bakersfield's Filip Engras, who scored twice in 10 seconds on Nov. 12.

Linus Weissbach, who scored his 20th goal of the season last night, earned the primary assist on two of Cederqvist's three goals, giving him 18 points (7+11) over his last 24 games.

Lawrence Pilut also assisted on two goals and now has 15 assists in his last 22 games, never going more than three games without a point over that span.

The Amerks were 3-4-0-0 this season when wearing specialty jerseys.
