TOP NOTES & STORYLINES

Carson Meyer made his Amerks and 2025-26 season debut, scoring his first of the season to get Rochester on the board to spark a four-goal third period. Meyer appeared in his first game since Feb. 15, when he suffered a season-ending injury with the San Diego Gulls. In 202 AHL games, the sixth-year pro has amassed 66 goals and assists for 132 points across Rochester, San Diego, and Cleveland.

Meyer's goal began a run of three goals scored within a 2:20 span. Joining in next was Anton Wahlberg, scoring his third goal of the season and second of the year against Belleville. Wahlberg has three points (1+2) over his last three games.

Riley Fiddler-Schultz completed the stretch with his second goal of the season and fourth of his career against the Senators. The goal ended an 11-game drought for the second-year Amerk.

Jake Leschyshyn continued his stretch, leading the Amerks in goal-scoring with his seventh of the season. The veteran has posted four goals over his last four games. Leschyshyn is one of eight forwards in the Eastern Conference with at least seven goals.

Ryan Johnson notched a pair of assists, bringing his season total to six which tops all active Amerk defensemen with Zac Jones currently on recall to the Buffalo Sabres. The pair of points marks Johnson's third multi-point game of the season.

Trevor Kuntar posted the lone multi-point game from an Amerks forward, threading two assists to increase his season total to eight points (5+3). The third-year pro extended his point streak to three games, reaching three goals and five points over that span. The streak of three marks a new career high for Kuntar.

Topias Leinonen appeared in relief of Devon Levi, marking his first career game in Rochester. The 21-year-old has made three starts for Rochester, with each coming on the road. Leinonen was not required to make a save, facing zero shots. The Sabres' prospect is 1-2-0 on the season.

Brendan Warren skated in his 300th professional game. The sixth-year Amerk has played 209 of his contests with Rochester.
