TOP NOTES

Devon Levi recorded his second-straight shutout and third clean sheet in the month of February. The Amerks netminder is now tied for the most shutouts in the AHL with five on the campaign while his 18 wins are also tied for most.

Over his last 22 games, Levi has four shutouts, a .927 save percentage, 1.94 goals-against-average, and a 17-4-1 record. The Quebec native ranks top in save percentage and goals-against-average during that span.

Konsta Helenius netted the game-winning goal in the fifth round of the shootout. The rookie forward is 2-for-5 (40%) in shootouts this season and is tied for the most among first-year stakers.

The Amerks penalty kill is now 35-for-36 in the last 11 games, which now sits third in the AHL (85.3%).

The 1-0 victory inside Blue Cross Arena was the first of its kind decided beyond regulation since defeating the Manitoba Moose on Feb. 23, 2011.

The win over Toronto is the first of the season, giving Rochester at least one victory against the six other members of the North Division. Four of the last six meetings against the Marlies have been decided by one goal.

Tonight's win also extended Rochester's home win streak to three straight games.
