TOP NOTES

The Amerks saw their three-game win streak snap, along with multiple point streaks. Rookie Viktor Neuchev had his streak conclude at six games, with the Russian forward scoring three goals and five points over that span.

Lukas Rousek also reached the end of his streak; a 13-game stretch, marking the longest point streak by an Amerk in 24 years, dating back to Domenic Pittis, who posted a 14-game point streak from January-March of 2000.

Rousek's streak, which date dback to Dec. 20, was the second-longest in the AHL this season and longest active streak going into Friday night. He scored four goals and 10 assists for 14 points over 13 games.

Jiri Kulich and Brett Murray led all forwards in shots on goal with four a piece, marking the eighth time Kulich has registered four or more shots in a game this season and the third time for Murray on the year.

Aside from that pairing, 17 of Rochester's 18 skaters registered shots on goal, with nine reaching multiple shots.

The Amerks outshot Utica 31-28 with the biggest difference coming in the second period when Rochester doubled up the Comets by a 12-6 margin.

Devin Cooley registered 24 saves on goal in his 13th start of the season. It's the 11th time this season Cooley has converted for 20 or more saves in a game.
